

October 26-28, 2007

Region 8 Conference

October 26th
Minneapolis

A Focus on Torture

co-sponsored by the Center for Victims of Torture.

October 27th-28th
Rochester

Putting the Patient First:
Cooperation in Crisis

Putting the Patient First: Cooperation in Crisis

Co-Sponsored by the University of Minnesota Medical School and the Mayo Medical School

For more Conference info and Registration

<http://www.amsa.org/region/8conf.cfm>

or contact Leslie at: kingschultz.leslie@mayo.edu

Early-Bird Cost (deadline Oct 4, 2007)

AMSA members	$ 35	$45 after Oct. 4
non-members	$ 45	$55 after Oct. 4

Bus Transportation to Rochester is available!

Dr. Scott Allen

Physician at the Center for Prisoner Health and Human Rights at the Miriam Hospital in Providence, Rhode Island. Medicine as Profession Fellow at PHR. He has also served as a medical director and expert for the Federal Courts in domestic correctional facilities in the US.

Dr. Steven Miles

Will speak on: 'From Injustice I will Keep Them: Principles for Medical Activism'

Professor of Medicine, University of Minnesota.

Faculty member of the Center for Bioethics, University of Minnesota

Author of 'Oath Betrayed: Torture, Medical Complicity and the War on Terror'

Dr. Denis Cortese

Will speak on: 'The Future of US Health Care'

President and Chief Executive Officer, Mayo Foundation

Dr. Jon Hallberg

Physician for Minnesota Twins

Medical Commentator, Minnesota Public Radio

Medical Director of Primary Care Center, University of Minnesota

Student Leadership Institute:

Participants will gain knowledge and skills about the possibilities of Universal Health Care

Sunday -- 10:00 am - 2:00 pm

With other sessions focusing on:

Health Disparities, HIV/AIDS, Global Health, Geriatric Medicine, Bird-Dogging, Global Warming, and the PharmFree campaign

*Center for Victims of Torture:

The Center for Victims of Torture works locally, nationally and internationally to heal the wounds of torture on individuals, their families and their communities and to stop torture worldwide. Conference participants will have the opportunity to tour this place of healing.